

Fall Festival

Dear Parents of TEACHER's Class,

Welcome back to school! For those of you who may be new to Frey, we do a Fall Festival each year. It's a lot of fun for everyone with slides/jumps, games, and inflatables. There are cake walks and a silent auction of gift baskets or items to be bid upon. The highest bid wins! We have vendor tables of all kinds which you can window shop and purchase if you like - go ahead and get those holiday gifts out the way.

Our responsibility as a class is to donate a basket, item or service to the Silent Auction to be bid upon and raise funds for the school. We need your support in gathering items for our basket either by donating goods, services, or money. This year, our class theme will be "_____". We also need 3 volunteers to donate a dessert (cake, cookies, brownies, etc.) for the Cake Walk. This is a wonderful opportunity to pull in as much money for our school as possible at one of our fabulous school sponsored events.

We need 3 cakes to be donated for the Cake Walk (please provide name, phone # and/or email)

We also need 2 bags of individually wrapped candy (please provide name, phone # and/or email)

This year our volunteer opportunities have changed, so we no longer require parents from each class to participate; however, if you have High School students that would like to earn Community Service hours, please email karenptsa@att.net for volunteer information. If there are any parents from the class who would like to donate a small amount of time to help set-up or close down the day of Fall Festival, we would greatly appreciate your time!
